

YOKO is a place of design led culture that blends intellectual attainment with creative sensitivity and individuality. We care about the individuals that work with us, those who bring knowledge, critique and also care about timeless detail. Our mission is to revolutionise the dog market, blending nutrition with design. We are all inclusive and celebrate our individuality along with those things that bring us together.

Market Staff

Working hours

Saturdays – 10am – 4pm

Purpose of the Role

We are looking for enthusiastic, committed and dog friendly salespersons to work at our Broadway Market location. Broadway Market is one of the best street markets in London.

Responsibilities

- You will be a brand ambassador for YOKO
- Sell dog products face to face
- Document and record both cash and card sales
- Be proactive at all times
- Engage in conversations with regular clients
- To encourage new clients to engage with the brand in a friendly, not forceful manner
- To positively add to the market culture
- Understand how the products are made and the ethos behind the brand
- Report to the Directors

Requirements

- No previous sales experience is required. We are much more interested in you as a person and are committed to building our business on this principle.
- Honesty, warmth and sincerity
- Legally allowed to work in the UK

Notes

All positions will undergo necessary training in order to do the tasks related to the job description

Interested?

Please send you CV with a description of why you would like to work with us to: info@myyoko.co.uk

Deadline: Noon, 30th November 2019

